Description

Theory from English Grammar in Use by Raymond Murphy.

I split each page into several notes using sections A, B, C... (see examples below)

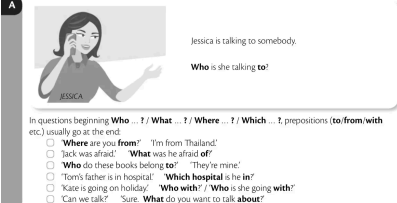

All cards are black-and-white, and contain official audio records. I was also brave enough to add some colourful styles to the cards, I hope it helps.

Please, beware, this deck is not supposed yet to contain any questions. The main intention of creating this deck is to test theoretical grammar knowledge. I may create exercises-based deck some day in the future.

Please contact me by fr167cjca@mozmail.com if you have any feature requests or complaints.

Have a nice day!

Image	 The image shows a sample card from the deck. It features a cartoon illustration of a woman with dark hair, wearing a grey top, talking on a mobile phone. To the right of the illustration, the text reads: 'Jessica is talking to somebody. Who is she talking to?'. Below this, there is a list of grammar exercises. The first exercise is: 'In questions beginning Who ... ? / What ... ? / Where ... ? / Which ... ? , prepositions (to/from/with etc) usually go at the end:'. This is followed by several multiple-choice questions, each with a blank space for the answer. The questions are: 'Where are you from?' (I'm from Thailand), 'Jack was afraid.' (What was he afraid of?), 'Who do these books belong to?' (They're mine), 'Tom's father is in hospital.' (Which hospital is he in?), 'Kate is going on holiday.' (Who with? / Who is she going with?), and 'Can we talk?' (Sure. What do you want to talk about?).

After the file is downloaded, double-click on it to open it in the desktop program.

At this time, it is not possible to add shared decks directly to your AnkiWeb account - they need to be added from the desktop then synchronized to AnkiWeb.
